CHRISTMAS IS A GOOD TIME TO GIVE!

WE ARE HOSTING AN EVENT!!

What: Santa Saturday

Where and When: Wauneta Public Library, Saturday December 7th from 2-4pm.

This will be an EXCELLENT time to get yourself, your littles or your teens their new library card and a Libby access code! At the event, there will be brand new books given away as prizes, as well as a HUGE selection of children's books to give away from our well-loved children's section. Each child to attend Santa Saturday will receive at least one well-loved book!

From 2-3pm there will be a workshop for little elves of any age where they can create their own stationery, then write a letter to Santa and place it in our Straight-to-Santa mailbox for delivery at the North Pole! They'll also have the opportunity to make a beautiful keepsake ornament to bring home and treats and a drink will be served.

From 3-4pm stories (of course!) will be read. (Teens are also welcome, as long as we are all on board to help promote the Santa Spirit for the littles!)

Santa ALWAYS writes back – so be sure to stop back in MWF between 1pm and 5pm the week of December 16-20th to pick up your response letters!

Blessings, all!
Amanda Z.
